

Lesson 28:

Israel

Divided into two kingdoms

Who was to be king?

ACTIVITY SHEETS

Solomon ruled Israel for 40 years.
Solomon's son was to be the next king.

Write the name of each picture in the boxes. The darker boxes, will spell the kings name.

The people went to him with a spokesman. They wanted their harsh taxes reduced.
The new king said he would answer in 3 days.
He talked with Solomon's experienced advisors and some men his own age.
He listened to the younger men and decided to do something.

Find out the new king's decision. Follow the correct alphabet path. It will lead to the answer.

Start

He was going to lower taxes and live in less luxury than his father.

He was going to increase their taxes and be more harsh than his father.

He was going to be a fair leader. He would let the people vote on their taxes.
